

I would like the no-call list to stay as is. My family time is MY time and I don't like to be interrupted. If I wanted a service from a business or wanted to continue doing business with a company, I would make contact.